Update from principal and superintendent

Victoria Sendejo, Associate Superintendent, and Audrey Alloway, Principal, provided an update on the current operations of Chapel Hill Academy during closure due to COVID-19. CHA leadership is working closely with the Texas Education Agency to insure instructional continuity while students are at home.

- Teachers and administrative staff are contacting each family at least once per week.
- Instruction has moved on-line and homework packets are provided to those lacking internet access or devices.
 - Investigating options to provide internet access and devices to these families.
- Meals are being provided by FWISD and Crowley ISD.
- Summer school and camps are on hold depending on duration of stay-at-home order and MLB season (Texas Rangers camp).

Alex Armstrong made a motion to authorize the following attestations as required by the TEA:

1. Attestation of off-campus programs approved for purposes of average daily attendance;
and
2. 2019-20 COVID-19 missed school day waiver attestation statement.

Susy Weaver seconded the motion and the motion passed unanimously.

The board will meet next on Wednesday, April 29th at noon via conference call.

With no further business the meeting was adjourned at 12:45 p.m.
